Open Rank Positions in the Department of Environmental Studies, Ashoka University

The Department of Environmental Studies at Ashoka University invites applications for two tenure-track/tenured Faculty (open-rank) positions with an expected joining date of August 1, 2019.

We are open to outstanding candidates in any sub-field. Those with a background in environmental sciences, environmental humanities and social sciences and/or ecology are encouraged to apply.

The University will require candidates to teach undergraduates without a science background, as Environmental Studies is a compulsory Foundation Course. The Department includes both scholars of the natural sciences and the humanities and social sciences, and aims to foster quality inter disciplinary research scholarship.

A Ph.D. is required by the time of appointment.

Ashoka is a research university based near New Delhi, India. The teaching load is 2-2. Ashoka University strongly encourages applications by women and members of SC/ST/OBC and other groups underrepresented in academia.

Applicants should submit: 1) cover letter; 2) a curriculum vitae; 3) two samples of academic writings (article length); 4) teaching evaluations (if available); 5) two confidential letters of reference; 6) research statement

Note: The Ashoka job portal further asks for statements of teaching philosophy for all applications. For this search they are optional.

All materials should be submitted through:

<https://facultypositions.ashoka.edu.in/>

The deadline for submitting a complete application is: 14 April, 2019
